

HARROGATE GRAMMAR SCHOOL

EXCELLENCE FOR ALL

November 2018

Dear Parents/Carers

The PE faculty and PTA wish to invite you to a Burns' night supper coupled with a malt whisky tasting. Awaiting you will be a feast of an event which even the most discerning palate will find irresistible. As in previous years we have booked live band Knotted Chord for the event. They will add to the atmosphere as well as help the more challenged dancers!

Burns' Night Supper with Malt Whisky Tasting
Live Band – Knotted Chord
Saturday 2nd February 2019
Arrive 7.30pm for 7.45pm meal until midnight
Dress – Lounge suits/kilts with a touch of tartan
Tickets - £30

Programme	Menu
Selkirk Grace Haggis piped in Address to the Haggis Meal and malt whisky tasting Loyal Toast Toast to the lassies Reply Verse, Dance, Song and Music	Cock-a-leekie soup Haggis, neeps and tatties (the original flown down from Scotland – shot and plucked on the day) Cranachan/Tipsy Laird Washed down with a dram or five!

For those who find whisky not to their liking, red or white wine and fruit juice will be available. Also, if you are vegetarian or have other dietary requirements we will do our best to accommodate you - please indicate this on the booking form.

The price for this positively cultural and gastronomic delight will be £30 (the same price as four years ago!) As a fundraiser, monies accrued will go towards outdoor portable floodlights, which will allow teams to practice without overcrowding the all-weather pitch.

This event has always sold out, so please book early to avoid disappointment. Only 150 tickets will be sold on a first come, first served basis. Please complete and return the booking form as soon as possible. Tickets will be allocated when the money is received.

Kind regards

Mr R Mackay
