4. Policy Statement

Positive, respectful, caring relationships and good self-regulation are at the heart of a safe and productive learning environment. They also underpin outstanding teaching and learning. Therefore, we help everyone in our community to work together to develop, maintain and sustain positive working relationships as well as supporting students and all members of our community manage their emotions, take responsibility for what follows and to contribute to school and society in a way that matches the school’s values.

Respectful relationships and self-regulation need to be taught, modelled and promoted. There must also be clear, unambiguous expectations which are understood and shared by all.

As a school we acknowledge that behaviour can be a way of communicating an unmet need. We also understand that students find a variety of ways to communicate their difficulties. This can include a presentation which attracts negative attention or conduct that is quiet and withdrawn. Where we identify a pattern of behaviour that indicates an underlying difficulty we provide opportunities for additional support. There is a partnership approach to improving behaviour and this is supported with effective, appropriate interventions.

This policy has been written in consultation with staff, students and parents and carers.

6. HGS Expectations

Clear structure, boundaries and routines alongside secure relationships enable students to thrive, feel safe, secure and in an optimal state for learning. Therefore, it is important that all students, parents and staff know what is expected of them and why. The ‘HGS Expectations’ stem from our school values and explain their importance in a community where respect, excellence, adventure, commitment and honesty are highly valued. They also allow all our staff and students to be successful.

These expectations must be clearly presented, understood and effectively applied by us all. The ‘HGS Expectations’, which are displayed in each classroom and around school, provide a visual explanation of our shared expectations.

7. Our approach:

1. ‘Connection before correction’

One of our core values is respect. This is for ourselves, our community and our environment. We support everyone to demonstrate kindness and care, promote equality and ensure that everyone feels valued and respected. The key to this is the positive relationships that are built in school and therefore we support all staff to invest time in getting to know their students and establish positive working relationships. We know that we all feel safe when we have secure relationships with approachable staff who offer an environment and culture that is structured and consistent with clear boundaries. There will be times when we need to resolve poor behaviour but we expect that this is done in a calm, non-judgemental, empathetic manner. We also ask that everyone is reflective and seeks advice and support if necessary.

2. The Positive Achievement System

The Positive Achievement System is designed to support our young people when they achieve our expectations, through recognition and reward and by providing clarification and consequence when those expectations are not met.

The most important part of this system is recognition and reward in lessons and around school. We want to recognise the standard we expect, to let students know that we appreciate how well they are doing and use rewards to continue to develop positive relationships. The behaviours we value in school are for process and effort, not simply skill or talent, so it encourages and builds a sense of resilience and determination to improve.

Class Charts is predominantly used by staff to award positive points to students. These points are linked to the HGS Expectations and school values and provide an explanation of the process and effort demonstrated by the student. These are accumulated over the year and milestones are recognised through the awarding of certificates and in awards assemblies. See Appendix 1.

A Rewards Day is offered to all students who have maintained a positive ratio of >85% throughout the academic year. It is the right of the senior leadership team to withdraw any student who they feel does not deserve the opportunity to participate in the Rewards Day. Recognition of student achievement is also done through the Queue Jumpers in KS3 and the Student of the Week in KS4.

This system is also used to clarify and reiterate expectation and if necessary provide a proportionate consequence should poor behaviour continue to be demonstrated. Staff should take reasonable steps to manage their classes through seating plans, clear reference to the HGS Expectations, assertive discipline, good humour etc. Staff should always use a full range of classroom management techniques before considering employing a consequence. However, staff must maintain a safe, productive learning environment and not allow the behaviour of individuals to prejudice the education of other students. If behaviour does not meet the HGS Expectations staff will use the following steps:

1. A clear Verbal Warning will be given in the first instance. A clear reason will be given to the student about the behaviour that is below expectations and the effect it is having on themselves and others. It will also be followed up with instruction about how it can be corrected giving the student an opportunity to change their conduct.

2. A Negative (Formal Warning/Consequence) will be issued if the poor conduct continues. This is the signal that despite the Verbal Warning the student has chosen to continue with this unacceptable behaviour. This will be recorded on Class Charts and will be seen by the Form Tutor, Year Manager and Parents/Carers.

3. If the behaviour continues to be unacceptable in a lesson a student maybe be moved to a Phase 2 classroom. A member of the “On Call” team will take a student to this room and they will be issued with a Phase 2 Negative by the classroom teacher and will be followed up by the Year Manager/Faculty Leader and the Teacher before the next lesson so the relationship can be repaired.

Failure to meet some expectations will result in a negative being issued automatically, without a verbal warning.

More serious behaviour may result in other consequences. See Appendix 2.
All Negatives should be entered onto the Class Charts system as quickly as possible, and certainly within 24 hours, so that Year Managers can act quickly. A reason why the student was given the negative must also be entered.

As well as using Class Charts as a tool to praise, reward and apply consequences it allows Senior Leaders, Year Managers, Teachers, Students, Parents and Carers to track behaviour.

3. Interventions

- Detention

At Harrogate Grammar School, we believe that good behaviour is an integral part of the learning process and that all individuals have the right to learn and work in an atmosphere of respect, trust, honesty and safety. Where a student persistently falls below our standards (3 or more negative points) within a 2 week period, they will be required to attend a 1 hour after school detention. This takes place on a Wednesday between 2.35pm and 3.35pm and is supervised by Senior Staff. Parents will always be given at least 24 hours’ notice. A further detention is held on a Friday for those who do not attend on Wednesday or have received 6 negatives within a 2 week period.

In detention students will be given support, assistance and resources to be productive and calm. At the start of every detention, students will be encouraged to reflect on the reason(s) they have been given a detention and will explore ways to manage their emotions and take responsibility for what follows.

- School-Parent Meeting

If a student’s behaviour continues to fall below expectations, despite intervention, then a meeting will be called. The Year Manager will meet with the student and parents/carers so supportive strategies can be agreed.

- Reintegration Room

In very rare circumstances poor behaviour may continue despite intervention. Where this occurs, and it is having a prejudicial effect on the education of others, a student may spend some time in our Reintegration Room. It is hoped that most sessions will be pre-planned, but some will happen following “on call” or other serious incident.

The Reintegration Room is managed at all times by a member of staff. Here students are present for the whole day. Students are expected to work in silence throughout the day.

Students are permitted Break and Lunchtimes but these are at different times from the rest of the School. During these times students are allowed to use the toilet and the Dining Room.

Referrals to the Reintegration Room will be made as a result of a student generating 9 negatives in a half term. When students are referred to the Reintegration Room, particularly when this is pre planned, appropriate and adequate work is set by subject teachers.

- Pastoral Support Plan

Some students may require a period of more intensive support with specific targets and associated interventions. This will be agreed following a meeting between home, school and any other relevant agencies. The plan will be periodically reviewed and any necessary adjustments made.

- Exclusion

The decision to exclude can only be made by the Headteacher and must be on disciplinary grounds. A student can be excluded for a fixed period or permanently.

This is used only as a last resort but may be considered if:

  - there has been a serious breach or persistent breach of the school’s behaviour policy; and
  - where allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil or others in school.

If a decision to exclude has been made parents must be notified without delay.

Students returning from a fixed period exclusion must attend a reintegration meeting with their parents, Year Manager and a member of the Senior Leadership Team.

All exclusions must comply with ‘Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England: Statutory guidance for those with legal responsibilities in relation to exclusion. (September 2017)

- Additional support

Additional Support will be provided in a variety of ways such as support from Year Manager, Just B, intervention targeted to the area of difficulty or mentoring. Decisions about the nature of this support will be made in partnership with the Pastoral and Learning Support teams and in conjunction with parents.

8. Practice and policy review process

This policy functions as a practice guide and is therefore reviewed whenever issues arise which generate new ways to articulate our approach.
