Dear Parent/Carer

Year 11 GCSE English Literature

As you may remember we wrote to you a while ago with some advice regarding purchasing 'Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde' and some revision materials for your child to use throughout their GCSE years in English. This letter includes a summary of texts/resources which your child has been provided with and a reminder regarding which texts and revision guides would be beneficial for your child to have. We believe your child would benefit from having a physical copy of the recommended text and resources so please consider purchasing these if you have not done so already.

Year 11 Text for GCSE English Literature: "Jekyll and Hyde"

We are currently revisiting this text and due to the current circumstances, we will not be able to provide your child with a copy of the text. Therefore, we advise that you purchase a copy of the text. This book can be purchased through Amazon for around the price of £2.50. If your child does have their own copy this allows for annotation of the text, assisting their learning.

Students can, however, access the text through the BBC School Radio website and this can be found at <https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds/search?q=jekyll+and+hyde>. However, it would be beneficial for them to have their own copy for annotations.

Year 11 Text for GCSE English Literature: "Romeo and Juliet"

Your child should have now been provided with their own copy of Romeo and Juliet. Thank you to the parents who purchased these books through school. If your child has not yet been given a copy, please ask them to contact their English teacher as soon as possible.

Year 11 GCSE English Literature: Past and present poetry anthology

In Year 10 your son/daughter will have been given a copy of the Poetry Anthology which they will have been learning from and annotating with additional notes. I would like to take this opportunity to advise that your child needs to ensure that they continue to keep this book safe. If your child has lost their anthology, please ask them to contact their English teacher.

Other recommended study books

We are keen to support students with their independent study for GCSE English. We also recommend the following study guides:
