What does revision mean / look like?

Securing knowledge in long-term memory through regular testing to build confidence

Revision = “knowledge out”

1. Analyse
subject content
based on your confidence (review specifications)

2. Testing /
retrieval of core
knowledge of content and
question
structures to build
foundations e.g.
flash cards

3. Testing
understanding
and recollection
of knowledge
through structured
application e.g.
mind maps from
memory

4. Application of knowledge to
exam questions
(in test
conditions)
Seek feedback
on work
produced

How can you help?
